Want a representative in Harrisburg who'll fight for our seniors, workers, students, and healthcare? Then you want Sharon Guidi.

Sharon's NOT a career politician.
She's NOT interested in serving big business.

As a lifelong South Hills resident, she wants to make our community healthier, safer, and cleaner—for all of us. It's going to take hard work, but as a passionate teacher and active community member, Sharon knows how to roll up her sleeves and get the job done.
